

MASON MURER FINE ART
ATLANTA, GEORGIA

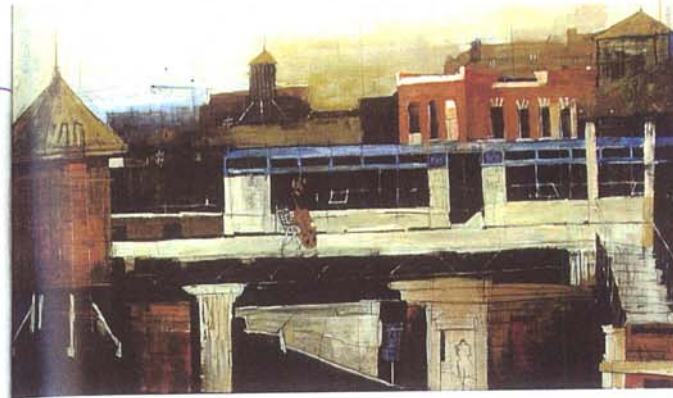

Mason Murer Fine Art was founded in 2004 by Mark Mason Karelson and Glenn Murer. The mission of Mason Murer is bring to the collector a wide range of work in a variety of media, from contemporary and modern painting, to sculpture, photography, and outsider art. The gallery represents both established international figures as well as emerging regional artists. With five separate viewing rooms, the gallery appeals to a variety of art collectors.

In January, 2006 Mason Murer Fine Art opened its second location in the heart of Atlanta's Buckhead district, Mason Murer Projects. Here the focus is on one person exhibitions or smaller group exhibitions of contemporary drawing, painting and sculpture in a range of styles by national and international emerging and established artists.

This fall the gallery will be featuring the works of several of its artists such as Dennis Campay, works on paper, Larry Walker, new works-mixed media, Marquetta Johnson, quilts, Molly Sawyer, sculpture, Lucinda Bunnell, photographs, Cesar Menendez's and Marc, Constantin and Roman Chato's paintings. See page 95 for more information.

Above: Larry Walker, Other Voices, Other Spaces, Farrakhan, Cobra, 1994, 60 x 84 inches, Mixed media; Below: Marc Chatov, Gitana Musica, 2006, 40 x 30 inches, Oil on canvas

Clockwise from above: Dennis Campay, Blue Line, 2007, 60 x 36 inches, Mixed media on canvas mounted on wood; Cesar Menendez, El sueño de los guardianes, 2004, 71 x 47 1/2 inches, Oil on canvas; Barbara Rehg, Foundation Series #18, 2006, 30 x 22 inches, Mixed Media; Molly Sawyer, Marco, 2006, 13 x 11 x 31 inches, Cast Hydrocal

Volume 5 Issue 2 - 2007

'Art galleries and Artists of the South', Vol. 5, Issue 2, 2007